Subject: Montclarion delivery and Jill Broadhurst

Is anyone receiving the weekly free copy of the Montclarion newspaper? I haven't and it is often impossible to find a copy for sale in the Village. Once I know if any are receiving home delivery, I will call the newspaper and tell them we are being left out.

Libby Schaaf, who is running for mayor of Oakland, cannot represent District 4 (odd side of Moraga Avenue) on the city council anymore so we must elect a new council rep in November. Jill Broadhurst, who came in second in the 2010 election, is running for the city council - here is the newspaper (which I didn't get) announcement from two weeks ago:
