From the Desk of Josie Camacho, Executive Secretary-Treasurer...

Help us raise the minimum wage in Berkeley!

Pack the City Council meeting!

Calling all East Bay residents – now is our time!!

The Minimum Wage movement is gaining steam in Berkeley – and we need your help! The Berkeley City Council is considering a proposal to increase the city's minimum wage that calls for:

- An immediate increase in the city's minimum wage to $10.74
- A gradual increase to $13.34 by 2022 with a faster acceleration for corporations and chains
- Annual Cost of Living Adjustments
- Health Care Benefits worth at least $2.22 p/h starting in 2015

A win in Berkeley now moves our whole movement forward, lending support to minimum wage fight in Oakland, Richmond and San Francisco. But business opposition is pushing back hard. A loss here will be a loss for all of us. So your voice must be heard!! Please come speak to the Berkeley City Council meeting.

What: Rally to support Berkeley Minimum Wage proposal

Where: 2134 Martin Luther King, Jr. Way, Berkeley CA 94704

When: Tuesday April 1. Rally at 6:00 PM. Berkeley City Council meeting at 7:00 PM.

Please also send the council an email petition at www.RaiseTheWageEB.org.
