

Frequently Used Statutes

Statute	Crime
187	Homicide
211	Robbery—confronting a person and demanding money or property by force or fear of force. Individual or commercial, armed or strong-armed.
212.5	Residential Robbery—breaking into a home to confront the residents for money or property.
215	Carjacking
242	Battery
246	Shoot at Inhabited Dwelling or Vehicle
247	Shoot at Uninhabited Dwelling or Vehicle
459	Burglary—breaking into an empty structure (house, car, store, etc.) for the purpose of stealing.
496	Receive Stolen Property
1203	Revoke Probation
10851	Vehicle Theft
245(A)(1)	Assault on a Person Other Than Firearm
245(A)(2)	Assault on a Person With Firearm
451, 452	Arson
484, 487, 496, 529, 530	Larceny (Theft)
594	Vandalism
530	False personation of another for profit, including identity theft.
B/W-MISD B/W-FEL	Bench Warrant-Misdemeanor Bench Warrant-Felony

664 / in front of a statue indicates an attempted crime.

Statutes beginning with PC are from the Penal Code.

Statutes beginning with HS are from the Health and Safety Code and are usually the drug offenses of sale, possession, possession for sale, and under the influence.

Statutes beginning with VC are from the Vehicle Code and are primarily stolen autos. Other offenses from the Vehicle Code are drunk driving, getting towed for illegal parking or vehicle abandonment, or other offenses related to driving. All other statutes can be found here: <http://www.leginfo.ca.gov/calaw.html>.