

INTRODUCED BY COUNCILMAN _____

Theodore R. Lakey
CITY ATTORNEYORDINANCE No. 10008 C.M.S.

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 9980 C.M.S., CREATING A RESIDENTIAL RENT ARBITRATION BOARD, IN ORDER TO PROVIDE CLARIFICATION OF INCONSISTENCIES AND ADDITIONAL TECHNICAL CORRECTIONS.

The Council of the City of Oakland does ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. RESIDENTIAL RENT ARBITRATION BOARD.

Pursuant to Section 501 of the Charter of the City of Oakland, there is hereby created a Residential Rent Arbitration Board.

SECTION 2. DEFINITIONS.

a. Board. The Residential Rent Arbitration Board established by this ordinance.

b. Capital Improvements. Those improvements which materially add to the value of the property and appreciably prolong its useful life or adapt it to new uses, and which may be amortized over the useful life of the improvement of the building in accordance with the Internal Revenue Code and regulations pursuant thereto.

c. Housing Services. Services provided by the landlord related to the use or occupancy of a rental unit, including, but not limited to, insurance, repairs, replacement, maintenance, painting, lighting, heat, water, elevator service, laundry facilities, janitorial service, refuse removal, furnishings, parking, security service, and employee services.

d. Landlord. Any owner or lessor of real property or any other person or entity who receives or is entitled to receive rent for the use or occupancy of any rental unit in the City of Oakland, and the representative, agent, or successor of such person, persons, or entity.

e. Rehabilitation. That work done by a landlord or tenant to a rental unit or to the common area of the property or structure containing a rental unit which is performed to secure compliance with any state or local law as to repair damage resulting from fire, earthquake, or other casualty or natural disaster, to the extent such repair is not reimbursed by insurance proceeds.

f. Rent. The total consideration demanded or received by a landlord in exchange for the use or occupancy of a rental unit.

g. Rental History. Any monies paid or demanded for rent, as defined in item f above, for a rental unit, for two years preceding the effective date of the proposed rent increase.

h. Rental Unit. Any residential unit, and all housing services provided with such unit that is located in the City of Oakland and used or occupied by the payment of rent; provided, however, that the following dwelling units are not deemed rental units for purposes of this ordinance:

- (1) Dwelling units whose rents are controlled or regulated by any government unit, agency or authority;
- (2) Housing accommodations in any hospital, convent, monastery, extended care facility, convalescent home, non-profit home for the aged, or dormitory owned and operated by an educational institution;
- (3) Accommodations in motels, hotels, inns, tourist houses, rooming houses, and boarding houses; provided that such accommodations are not occupied by the same tenant for 60 or more continuous days; and
- (4) Dwelling units in a non-profit cooperative, owned, occupied, and controlled by a majority of the residents.

i. Security Deposits. Any payment, fee, deposit, or charge, including but not limited to, an advance payment of rent, used or to be used for any purpose, including but not limited to the compensation of a landlord for a tenant's default in the payment of rent, the repair of damages to the premises caused by the tenant, or the cleaning of the premises upon termination of the tenancy.

j. Tenant. A person entitled by written or oral agreement, to the use or occupancy of any rental unit.

SECTION 3. PURPOSE AND FUNCTIONS OF BOARD. It shall be the function and responsibility of the Residential Rent Arbitration Board to hear disputes between landlords and tenants regarding residential rent increases, and to arbitrate these disputes pursuant to the guidelines hereinafter set forth in this ordinance.

SECTION 4. MEMBERS OF THE BOARD.

a. The Board shall consist of seven (7) members appointed pursuant to Section 501 of the Charter, who shall serve without compensation.

b. Of the board members appointed, two (2) shall be landlords, two (2) shall be tenants, and three (3) shall be neither landlords nor tenants.

c. Four board members shall constitute a quorum, and any decision by the Board shall require a majority of those members present.

d. All board members shall be appointed for a term of one (1) year.

e. A vacancy on the Board will exist whenever a Board member dies, resigns, or is removed, or whenever an appointee fails to be confirmed by the Council within ten (10) days of appointment. A board member may be removed pursuant to Section 501 of the Charter. Among other things, conviction of a felony, misconduct, incompetency, inattention or inability to perform his/her duties, or absence from three (3) consecutive regular hearings, except on account of his/her illness, or when absent from the City by permission of the Board, shall constitute cause for removal.

SECTION 5. RENT INCREASE GUIDELINES.

a. Occupied Units. This ordinance shall apply to any occupied rental unit in the City of Oakland wherein the rental increase or total increases within the twelve (12) month period beginning May 6, 1980, and ending May 6, 1981, exceeds ten percent (10%).

b. Vacant Units. The rent for units not occupied at the time this ordinance becomes effective or any rental unit which becomes vacant and is subsequently occupied shall not exceed twelve percent (12%) in the 12-month period beginning May 6, 1980, and ending May 6, 1981.

c. Standards. Any rental increase for any occupied rental unit which exceeds the aforementioned limitations and is under dispute must be justified on one or more of the following grounds:

- (1) An increase in capital improvement costs,
- (2) An increase in rehabilitation costs,
- (3) An increase in housing service costs,
- (4) Any other factors the Board deems relevant including, but not limited to, the past rental history of the unit.

d. Notice. Landlords are hereby required to notify tenants in writing of the existence of the Residential Rent Arbitration Board. Said notice shall be in the form of an addendum to any lease in effect at the time of the effective date of this ordinance or any lease entered into after the effective date of this ordinance. In case of existing oral tenancies, landlords shall be required to give such notice, in writing, by the date specified by the Board. In the case of new oral tenancies, landlords shall be required to give such notice, in writing, at the commencement of the tenancy.

Tenants occupying previously vacant units shall, at the commencement of such tenancy, be advised in writing by their landlord of the rent in effect, if any, prior to such tenancy.

Rental units which are vacant, shall be suitably posted so as to advise prospective tenants of the rent previously in effect. Landlords shall post such information in a prominent location inside the rental unit.

SECTION 6. STAFF. The position of Secretary to the Rent Arbitration Board shall be established. Staffing shall be provided through the Office of the City Manager.

The Secretary to the Board shall process all petitions for review submitted by landlords and/or tenants, set Board hearings, and perform the general administrative duties assigned to the Secretary by the Board.

SECTION 7. INITIATION OF BOARD REVIEW. The Board shall hear matters to determine whether a rent increase complies with the provisions of Section 5 of this ordinance upon receipt of a petition for review submitted by a landlord and/or a tenant, provided the following conditions are met:

a. The petition, made under penalty of perjury, alleges a rent increase which exceeds the amount authorized by Section 5.

b. Each petition shall be accompanied by a $10 filing fee, to be returned if no hearing is granted by the Board. In the event the Board consolidates hearings, as authorized hereinafter, only one such filing fee shall be required.

c. The petition is filed within 30 calendar days after receipt of a notice of a proposed rent increase.

d. The Board shall notify the opposing party to the petition for review that he/she has 14 calendar days to file a response to the petition.

e. The Board shall notify the landlord and tenant in writing of the time and place set for hearing. Disputes involving more than one unit in any single building may be consolidated for hearing by the Board if the Board determines consolidation to be in the best interest of the parties.

f. The Board shall hear the matter within 30 calendar days of the filing of the original petition for review; continuances of the hearing date may be granted upon a showing of good cause.

g. The Board shall render its decision not more than seven calendar days after the conclusion of the hearing, and all parties shall be notified in writing.

h. Any proposed rent increase that exceeds the amount authorized by Section 5 is not operative until the decision of the Board has been made.

SECTION 8. CONDUCT OF HEARINGS. The following procedures shall apply to all hearings of the Board:

a. All hearings conducted by the Board shall be public and tape cassette recorded.

b. Any party to a hearing may be assisted by an attorney or any other person so designated by the party.

c. Any relevant evidence may be submitted by any party and shall be submitted under oath.

d. In the event that either party fails to appear at the designated hearing, the Board may hear and review such evidence as may be presented and render a decision.

e. The Board must render its decision employing the standards set forth in Section 5 of this ordinance.

f. No rent adjustment above the limit set forth in Section 5 of this ordinance shall be granted unless supported by a preponderance of the evidence submitted at the hearing.

g. The conclusions and findings of the Board shall be final and there shall be no appeal rights to the City Council. The Board's action does not preclude review by a court of competent jurisdiction.

SECTION 9. REVIEW. This ordinance shall be reviewed by Council in May, 1981.

SECTION 9.1. REMEDY.

a. Any aggrieved party may bring an action for injunctive relief or damages, or both, in a court of competent jurisdiction for any violation of the provisions of this ordinance.

b. Failure of a party to abide by the lawful order or decision of the Residential Rent Arbitration Board shall be deemed a violation of this ordinance and subject to the specific remedy set forth in paragraph (a).

SECTION 10. SEVERABILITY. This ordinance shall be liberally construed to achieve its purposes and preserve its validity. If any provision or clause of this ordinance or application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this ordinance which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this ordinance are declared to be severable and are intended to have independent validity.

SECTION 11. NON WAIVERABILITY. Any provision, whether oral or written, in or pertaining to a rental agreement whereby any provision of this ordinance is waived or modified, is against public policy and void.
