VII. DESCRIPTION OF INCIDENT SCENE

The incident occurred at 301 Jayne Street, inside of apartment [REDACTED]. This is a 3rd Story apartment, with a glass sliding door leading to a small balcony. There was furniture throughout the apartment. There was some natural light coming into the apartment from the sun through the windows, and artificial light from interior lights.

VIII. SUMMARY OF INCIDENT

Victim [REDACTED] called the police at 0944 hours to report that suspect [REDACTED] was refusing to leave her residence.

Ofc. Karsseboom arrived at 301 Jayne St., at approximately 1123 hours, and met the victim in front of the apartment complex. [REDACTED] advised him that they were previously involved in a boyfriend/girlfriend relationship several months ago. [REDACTED] broke up with [REDACTED] due to substance abuse and psychological issues. ([REDACTED] previously placed on 5150 hold).

[REDACTED] called [REDACTED] on 18 Feb 12 and told her that she was homeless and asked to stay with her. [REDACTED] agreed and they resumed their sexual relationship.

On 2 Mar 12, 0900 hours, [REDACTED] asked [REDACTED] to move out. [REDACTED] became irrational, removed his underwear and walked into the bathroom and threw his underwear at [REDACTED] and then proceeded to take a shower. [REDACTED] finished his shower and was again asked to move out. [REDACTED] grabbed one of his bags, and discovered approximately 2 ounces of marijuana in the bag. [REDACTED] became upset and choked [REDACTED] with his hands. [REDACTED] pushed him away and locked herself in the bathroom. [REDACTED] smoked some marijuana. While he did this, [REDACTED] left the residence and waited for the police in front of the apartment complex.

Ofc. Karsseboom arrived on the scene and met with [REDACTED] ifo the apartment complex. They then relocated to apartment # [REDACTED], to talk to [REDACTED]. While talking to the [REDACTED] he became upset, and Ofc. Karsseboom tried to use his police radio, but it was on CC scan. He then utilized his cellular phone to call dispatch to advise that his radio was not working. At this time, [REDACTED] had calmed down.

Narrative - Continued

Ofc. Tran arrived on the scene and stayed with [REDACTED] while Karsseboom went to the bedroom to talk to [REDACTED]. Karsseboom then returned to the living room and told [REDACTED] to turn around and place his hands behind his back, but [REDACTED] refused, and kept sitting on the couch. Karsseboom asked [REDACTED] a second time to turn around and place his hands behind his back as he removed his taser from the holster. [REDACTED] still refused to comply.

Karsseboom asked [REDACTED] for the third time to turn around and place his hands behind his back. [REDACTED] turned around and put his hands behind his back. [REDACTED] then turned back around and asked "Why?" Karsseboom advised that he was under arrest for hitting the victim.

Karsseboom ordered [REDACTED] for the fourth time, to turn around and place his hands behind his back, but he continued to comply to the orders. [REDACTED] removed his t-shirt, sweatpants, and underwear and spread his feet shoulder width apart and flexed his upper body. [REDACTED] had a blank stare. Karsseboom pointed his taser at [REDACTED] and told him that if he did not turn around and place his hands behind his back, he would tase him.

[REDACTED] headed for the sliding door, which lead to a small balcony on the 3rd floor. Fearing that [REDACTED] was going to jump off the balcony, Karsseboom tased [REDACTED] for 5 seconds. Karsseboom told the suspect to turn around and place his hands behind his back again. [REDACTED] did not comply, but instead got up, and headed again to the sliding glass door. Karsseboom delivered another 5 second cycle from the taser. [REDACTED] fell to the floor. [REDACTED] attempted to remove the prong, and Karsseboom advised him that if he did not comply with the orders, he would tase him again. [REDACTED] then complied with the orders from Karsseboom and placed his hands behind his back, and Tran handcuffed him without further incident.

Tran advised on the radio to start medical for a tasing and to have the supervisor respond for the UOF. I got on the radio and advised radio to have medical respond Code 3.

IX. INVESTIGATION

I was at the PAB sergeants' office completing a level 4 use of force with a complaint when the officers were dispatched to the call. I heard that Ofc. Karsseboom's radio was transmitting poorly. I then heard that Ofc. Tran requests a supervisor to the scene and advised over the radio that there was a taser deployment. I immediately responded to the scene.

Upon arrival, I went to the apartment and saw the suspect, [REDACTED] on a gurney, being rolled to the elevator. I followed [REDACTED] to interview him regarding the use of force. At first, [REDACTED] did not want to talk to me. [REDACTED] then decided to talk to me.

He stated that he did not know why the officer tased him and the officer did not say anything to him prior to him being tased. [REDACTED] continued to state that he did not have any clothes on, and the officer was talking to him, and then shot him. [REDACTED] remembers the officer telling him that he better listen or the officer would shoot (tase) him. [REDACTED] then opened the window because he is claustrophobic, then the officer shot him.

[REDACTED] then changes the subject and starts talking about a lost dog that was found on TV. He switches subjects again, and stated that in two weeks he is going to be a respectful business man.

I asked [REDACTED] what he wanted from the outcome of the complaint, and he did not know. He continued to state that the police affected him on top of the other issues he has.

Sgt. Babka canvassed the scene for possible witnesses while I was taking a complaint from [REDACTED] (PDRD). Complaint pamphlet given to [REDACTED] and the proper procedures regarding complaints was explained to him.

[REDACTED] was transported to ACH for medical clearance, followed by Tran.

I interviewed Karsseboom about the events and he told me the details above. He was not injured during the incident.

I advised radio and Lt. Armstrong of the UOF and complaint taken.

I broke from the scene to respond to another officer requesting a supervisor regarding a 261 suspect.

I returned to the sergeants' office and filled out the complaint form, and e-mailed the form to the parties stated in the General Order.

I reviewed the video and the supplementals, and discovered that School Police Ofc. Beltran was on scene. I did not locate a supplemental from her. I understand that the school police have different policies than OPD, and they do not have access to FBR.
