ignition appears to have been "hot-wired" to start the vehicle's engine.

Summary:

It appears that unknown suspect(s) hot-wired the ignition and took Vehicle #1 from an unknown location in San Bruno which is a violation of VC 10851 - Stolen Vehicle and then abandoned the vehicle in the 6400 blk of Mokelumne Ave.

I canvassed the area for suspect(s) and witnesses without success.

I did not observe any video surveillance equipment that might have captured this incident.

I did not have a PDRD.

There were no known witnesses to this incident.
