Hi Amber:

I asked Michael Ford at PWA to respond to the inquiry, and he is not aware of any formal studies or communications that fit this description. According to Michael, PWA staff and it's parking operator use monthly parking wait lists and facility occupancy levels as a measure of demand, but this as a function of routine operations. PWA is currently conducting a formal downtown Oakland parking study led by Nelson/Nygaard that will include the Telegraph Plaza Garage and surround area. This study should be completed by the end of the calendar year.

Please let me know if you have any other questions.

Thank you!

Jens
